

Dundry C.E. Primary School

Colour/Number	Behaviour Choices	Consequences and Rewards
1	You are following the Code of Conduct and making good choices.	You will have friends. You will be learning well. Everyone will be proud of you and you will feel proud of yourself. Praise, stickers and Golden Time.
2	You are beginning to make poor choices – you need to think how you change this quickly.	You are not learning. People might not want to play with you. Everyone will be disappointed in you if you do not change and you may feel disappointed in yourself.
3	You have made a poor choice.	You have disrupted learning for other children. You have upset or hurt others. You have spoiled the play for other children. You will not earn all of your Golden Time and you will be moved away from your friends and other children. You will be sent to work with another adult.
4	You have made a poor choice and are not responding to the adults who are trying to help you.	You have disrupted learning for other children. You have upset or hurt others. You have spoiled the play for other children. You will be moved away from your friends and other children and sent to Mrs Maggs, who will decide when you can return.
